

2023-2024 Sponsorship Opportunities

We appreciate your commitment to supporting DOVE's signature events.

Your support matters,
makes a difference,
and saves lives!

Every Home should be a Safe Home!

"I found a place to live and with the support from DOVE I was able to secretly get out. Every time I drove away from his house I would scream "we're free!" My advocate constantly told me I was doing a good job. She reminded me of the truth. I learned positive thinking through DOVE."

- A DOVE Survivor

For the past 45 years DOVE has been offering life-saving services to survivors of domestic and partner violence. The advocacy staff at DOVE work with intention to support survivors on their healing journey. Whether a survivor needs court advocacy, counseling, support groups, shelter, or children's services, DOVE is here to offer the necessary free and confidential support.

Unfortunately, the need for our services is ongoing and always urgent. This past year DOVE saw an increase in calls across all of our programs. In response, our advocates have worked tirelessly to eliminate the barriers our survivors face in order to receive the support necessary to move beyond violence. In addition to providing supports such as safety planning, rent assistance, and court representation, the staff have also created new ways to offer hope through healing. At DOVE we know that healing begins with connection. To that end we work to build community among our survivors by offering various fun family activities and 'pop-up shops' designed to put in-kind donations directly into the hands of our survivors.

Your support as an event sponsor shows our community members that you stand with us against domestic and partner violence. DOVE's signature fundraising events are not just about raising the critical funds for our programs and services. Events are also an opportunity for us to showcase the work we do, inviting new members to join us in the fight to end domestic and partner violence. Please take a moment to review the opportunities available, including our Champion Sponsorships for simple and all-encompassing opportunity to support DOVE's important work.

Your commitment as an event sponsor helps keep our community strong. DOVE's community of supporters creates opportunities for us to enrich the lives of our community of survivors. Together we can work to end domestic and partner violence. We hope we can count on your support!

By sponsoring DOVE's events, you are helping to ensure essential services to help save lives and families.
