Every Home should be a Safe Home!

Thank you for your support!

By sponsoring DOVE's events you are helping to continue essential services to help save lives and families.

Your Support Matters!

COVID-19 exacerbated the scourge of domestic violence in our communities, with more calls and requests for service than ever before.

We are grateful for your generous continued involvement which makes it possible to expand our prevention efforts, eliminate the waitlist for our programs, and better serve those in need to build back their lives and create safer families.

DOVE's signature fundraising events provide the funds we need in order to continue providing our vital services. Please take a moment to review the opportunities available, including all-new Champion Sponsorships for simple and all-encompassing support of DOVE's important work. We hope you will take a clear stance against domestic violence, and join DOVE in 2021-2022 as a sponsor of one or more of our events.

October 29, 2021

Words can not describe the gratitude I feel to DOVE. I have met so many kind people and have made new friendships. When I meet my advocate she always puts a smile on my face. She is such a compassionate and helpful person. It is because of DOVE that I have her and have the strength to keep moving forward each day.
