DOVE Programs

Supportive Counseling Services
617-770-4065 x300 Please leave your name and a safe number and we will return your call within 24-48 hours.

DOVE offers supportive counseling, crisis intervention, risk assessment and safety planning, support processing the impact of domestic violence, and information and assistance navigating social service systems to survivors of domestic violence.

Support Groups
617-770-4065 x300 Please leave your name and a safe number and we will return your call within 24-48 hours.

DOVE offers support groups where participants can increase knowledge about domestic violence, gain healthy coping skills, and make connections with other survivors. Groups are organized based on interest and availability.

Chinese Advocacy & Outreach Services
617-770-4065 x304

DOVE offers culturally-specific advocacy services to survivors in the Chinese community. Services are offered in Mandarin and English.

LGBTQ+ Advocacy & Outreach Services
Counseling Services and Support Groups
617-770-4065 x300

DOVE offers culturally-specific advocacy services to survivors and their communities and provide support in two District Courts with police officers on the response to domestic violence in a variety of other advocacy services.

Emergency Shelter
617-471-1234

Temporary refuge for adults and their children in a caring, confidential environment. While in shelter, survivors receive support, advocacy, case management, legal assistance, and children’s services.

Hotline
24-Hour Anonymous Hotline 617-471-1234

A professional team of staff provides support and crisis intervention to individuals impacted by domestic violence and to family, friends, and neighbors concerned about a loved one.

Community Outreach, Education, and Prevention
617-770-4065 x500

DOVE offers presentations, workshops, and training on a range of topics for community service providers, churches, schools, and youth programs, colleges and universities, health care providers, businesses, and civic groups. DOVE also conducts a 35-hour comprehensive training on domestic violence and related issues twice annually.

Legal Advocacy
617-770-4065 x400 Please leave your name and a safe number and we will return your call within 24-48 hours.

DOVE’s attorneys are trained in providing trauma-informed, client-centered services to survivors of domestic violence. Staff attorneys provide representation, legal advice, and information to survivors in the areas of family law, immigration law, restraining orders, and housing and benefits matters. DOVE’s attorneys also provide court outreach at Norfolk Probate and Family Court and Quincy District Court.

Mission Statement
Hope, healing, safety, social change. Working together to end domestic and partner violence.

Vision
A community unified in peace, justice, and equity, for the safety and well-being of every individual.

Statement of Welcome and Affirmation
DOVE welcomes refugee and immigrant survivors both documented and undocumented; people with disabilities; people who are Deaf or hard of hearing; BIPoC (Black, Indigenous, and other People of Color); LGBTQ, Queer, Trans, and Non-Binary individuals; people of all religion and faith beliefs; and individuals whose first language is not English. DOVE welcomes people of all identities, including those not named.

DOVE’s Advocacy and Support Services are generously funded in part by: the MA Department of Public Health (DPH), Sexual and Domestic Violence Prevention and Survivor Services Division; a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant from the US Department of Justice Programs, awarded by the MA Office for Victim Assistance (MOVA); and a Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) STOP grant, US Department of Justice, awarded by the MA Executive Office of Safety and Security (MA EOSS). Further support is provided by private and family foundation grants, individuals, local business and corporations, churches and synagogues, community groups, and fundraising events.

All contributions, cash and in-kind, are tax-deductible to the extent of the law.

DOVE, Inc.
P.O. Box 690267
Quincy, MA 02269

24-Hour Hotline 617-471-1234
1-888-314-DOVE (3683)

Community Advocacy & Prevention Services
617-770-4065
Fax: 617-770-2206
www.dovema.org

This project was (partially) supported by the Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance through a Victims of Crime Act of 1984 (VOCA) grant from the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.
DOVE, Inc. (DOmestic Violence Ended) is an independent nonprofit organization providing assistance to survivors of domestic violence and their children.

DOVE offers a comprehensive range of services, provided in a safe and comfortable environment, designed to increase safety, promote healing, and expand knowledge and resources for those we serve. DOVE staff are highly trained and well educated on issues related to domestic violence, and work to deliver services in a survivor-centered approach with the understanding that each survivor is an individual and all decisions are deeply personal.

Children’s Services

DOVE offers services for children and adolescents impacted by domestic violence – including teen survivors of dating violence. The program consists of both community-based and shelter services that offer individual counseling, individual parent support, parent support groups, child/teen support groups, and child advocacy within its community programming. At the shelter, children’s programming includes respite care, family events, child groups (depending on ages), and information on resources in the area.

Children’s Books

- A Terrible Thing Happened, by Margaret Holmes
- Hands are Not for Hitting, by Martine Agassi
- The Night Dad Went to Jail, by Melissa Higgins
- The Feelings Book, by Todd Parr
- When Sophie Gets Angry – Really, Really Angry, by Molly Bang
- Moody Cow Meditates, by Kerry Lee MacLean
- The Invisible String, by Patrice Karst
- There Might Be Lobsters, by Carolyn Crimi
- The Bad Seed, by Jory John

Parenting Books

- When Dad Hurts Mom, by Lundy Bancroft
- The Batterer as Parent, by Lundy Bancroft
- The Whole Brain Child, by Daniel Siegel
- Brain-Based Parenting, by Dan Hughes
- Parenting from the Inside Out, by Daniel Siegel